TNC

If you utilize your personal auto during the course of performing as a part-time or full-time rideshare driver for companies such as Uber or Lyft, their insurance may not cover what you might expect, meaning you could find yourself paying for damages out of your own pocket. That's why USH&C decided to provide TNC coverage endorsement options for our policyholders.

INDIVIDUAL DELIVERY

United Security Health and Casualty (USH&C) is now offering Individual Delivery Coverage for those who are driving for delivery related businesses, such as Amazon Flex, DoorDash, Postmates, Grubhub, UberEATS and Instacart. This new endorsement provides coverage throughout the entirety of the delivery process, regardless of how many hours you may be working. Not only does it pair seamlessly with our current TNC and TNC Plus endorsement, but it can also stand alone if you only provide delivery services.
